

Innovative Finance Inclusion in Academia and Field

619453-EPP-1-IL-EPPKA2-CBHE-JP

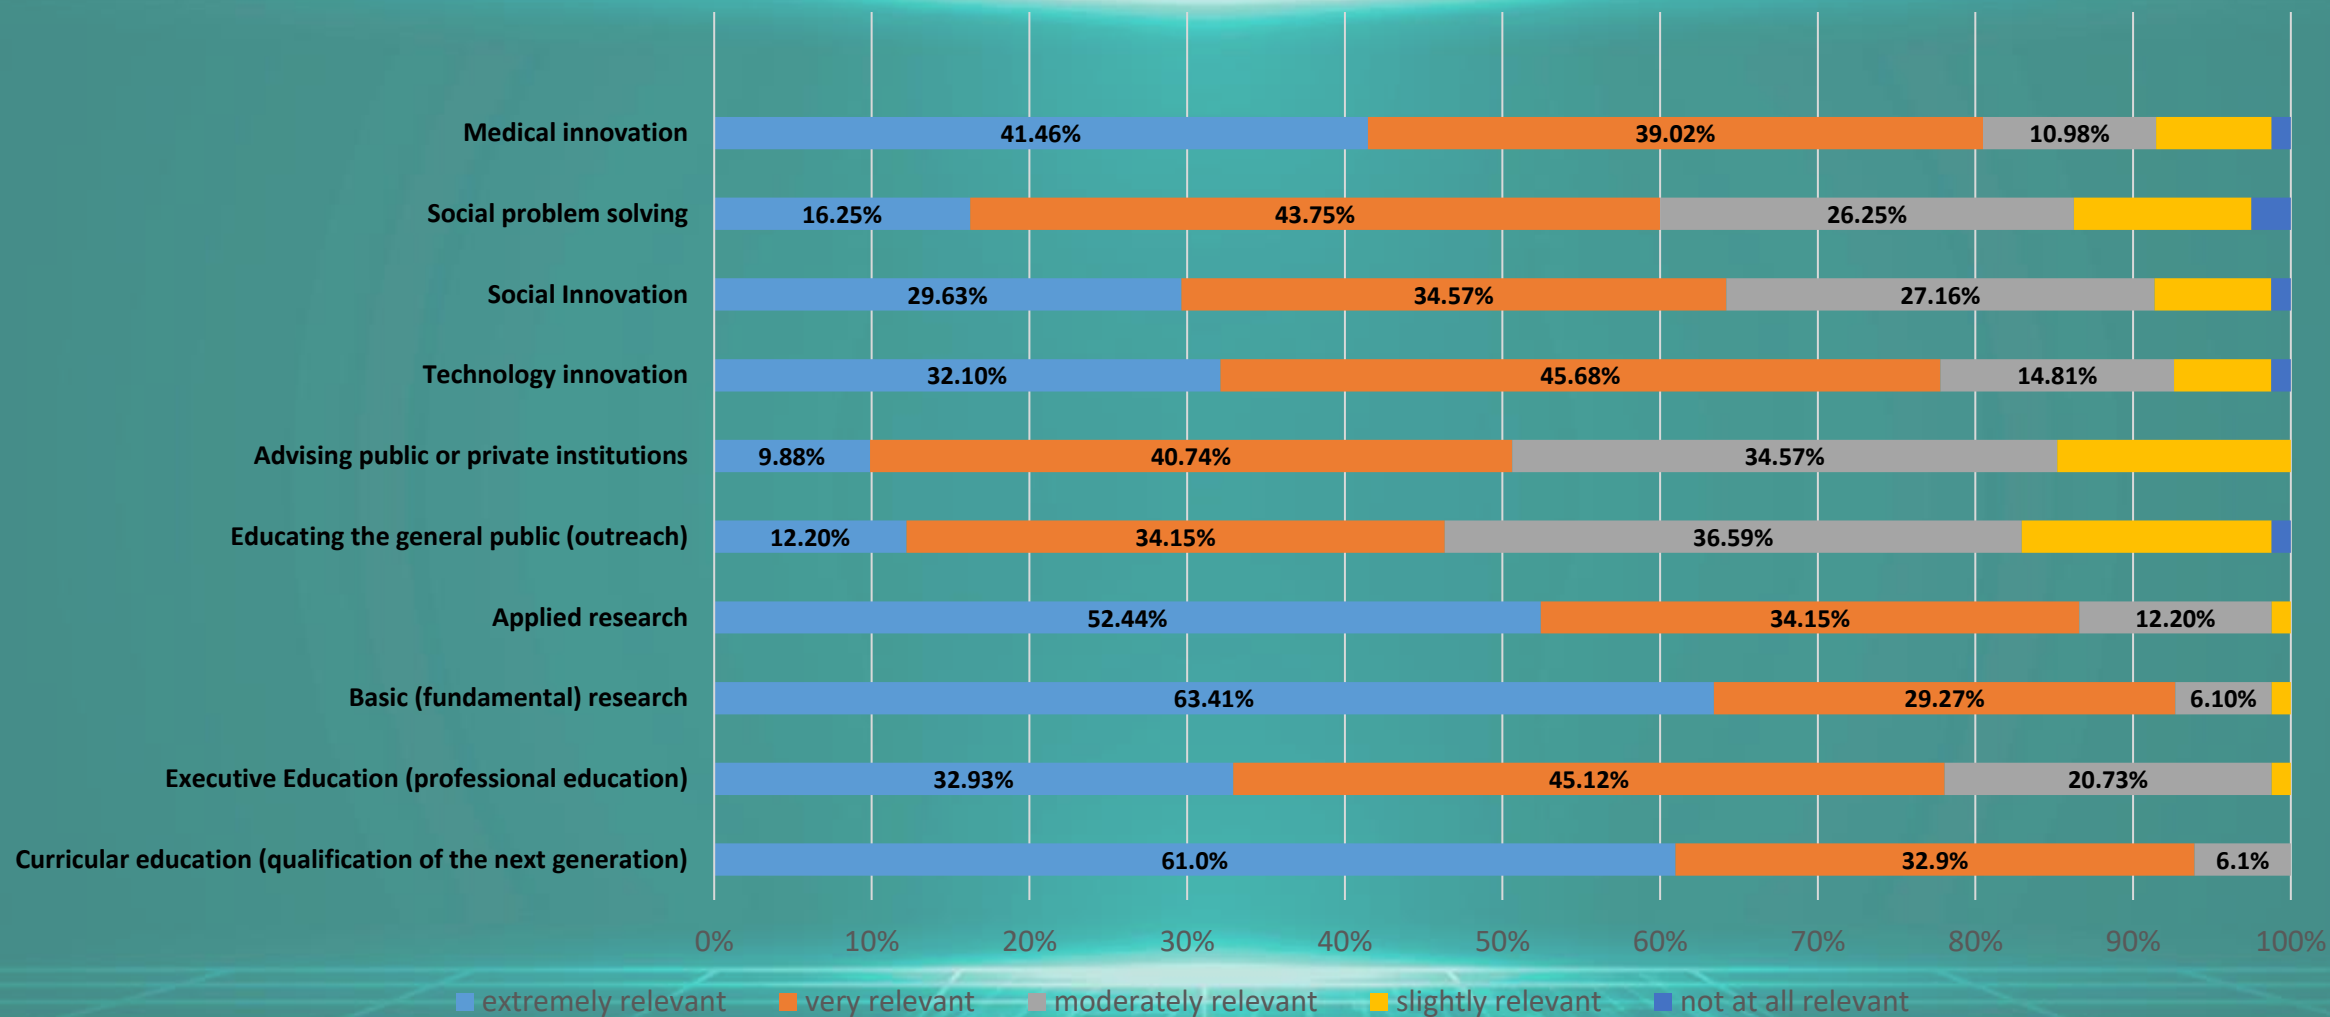

WP1: The Faculty Survey, Results

Dr. Volker Then, Centre for Social Investment, Heidelberg University

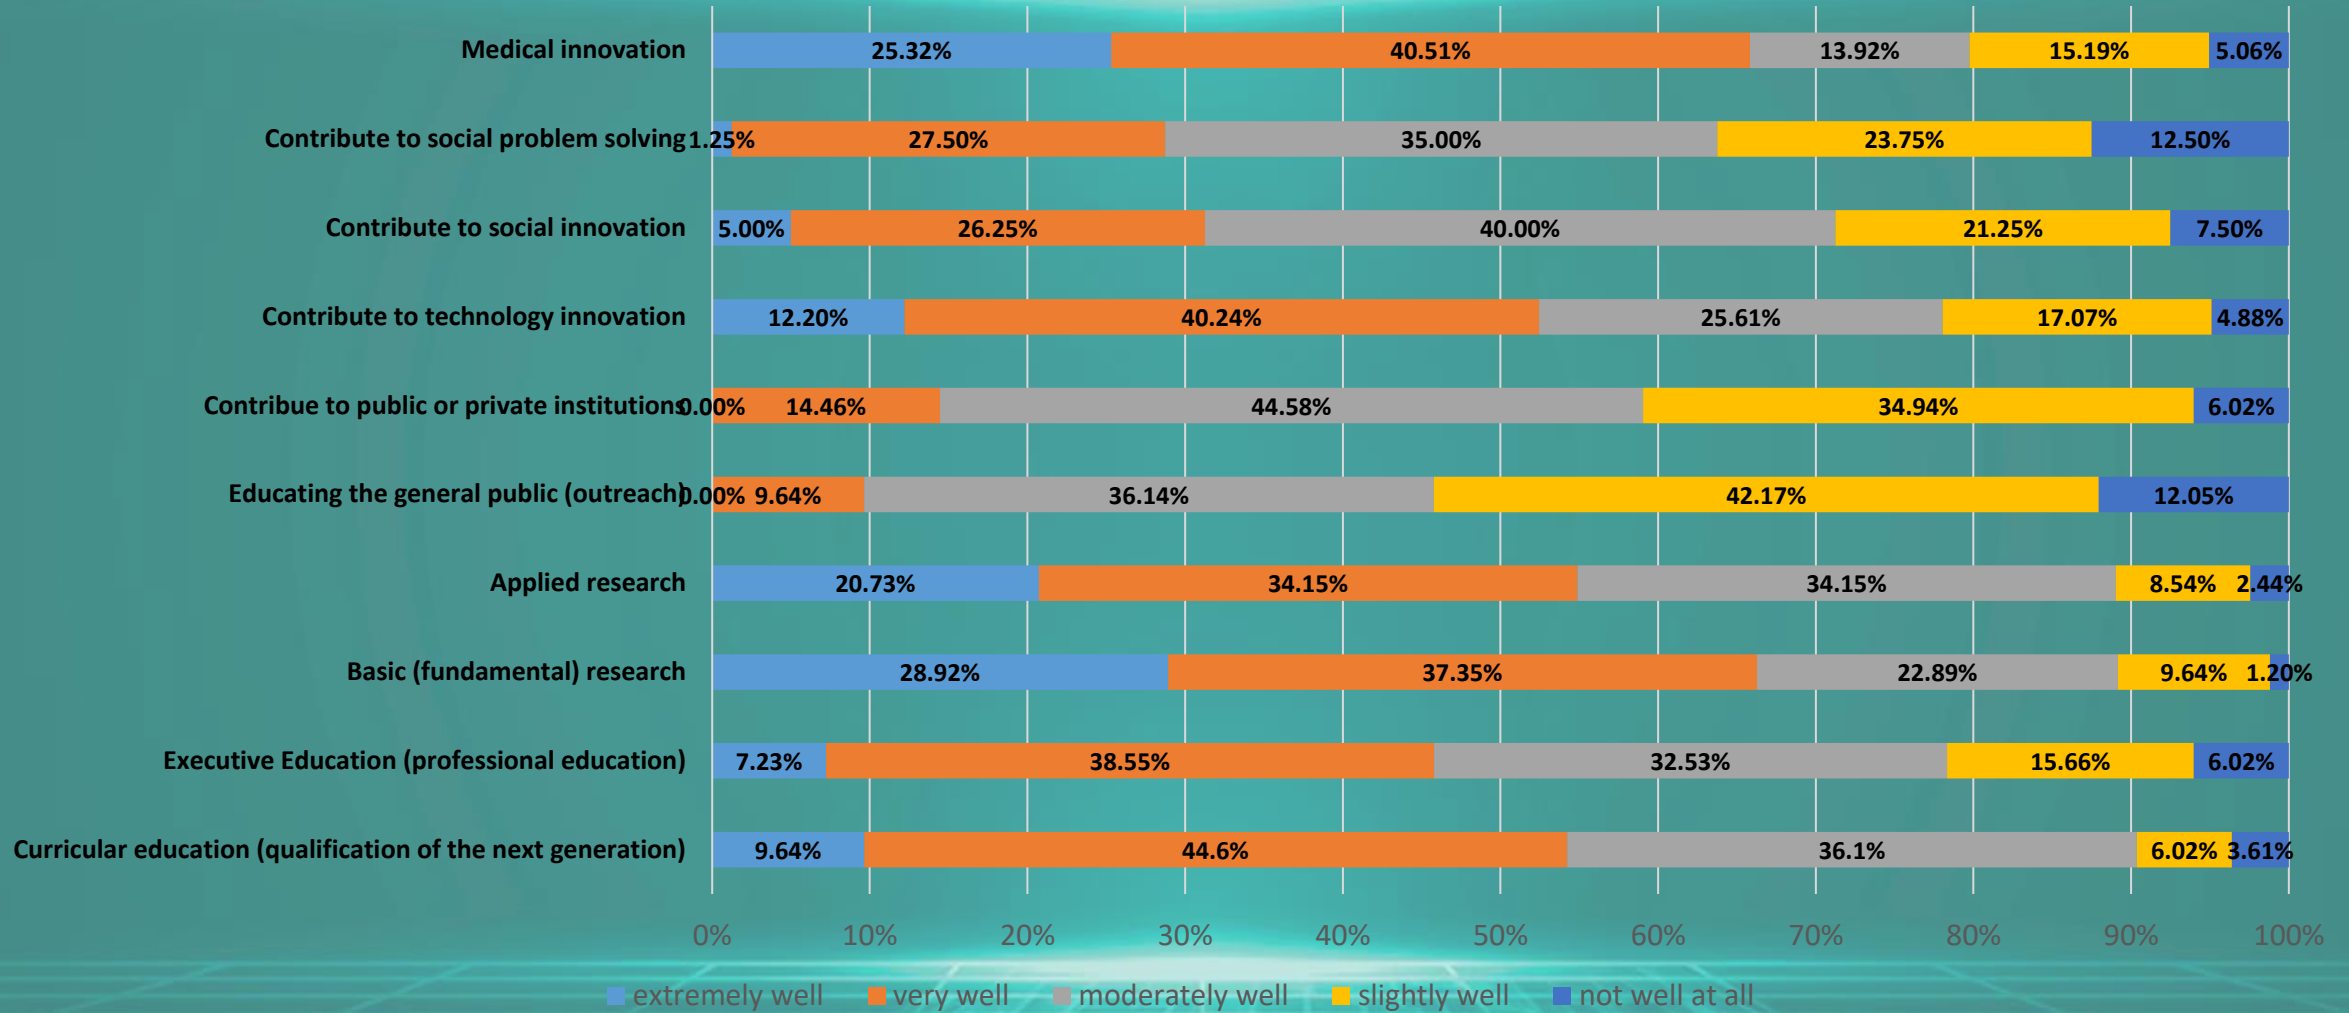

Q 3: With regard to sustainability, academia serves as... N=83

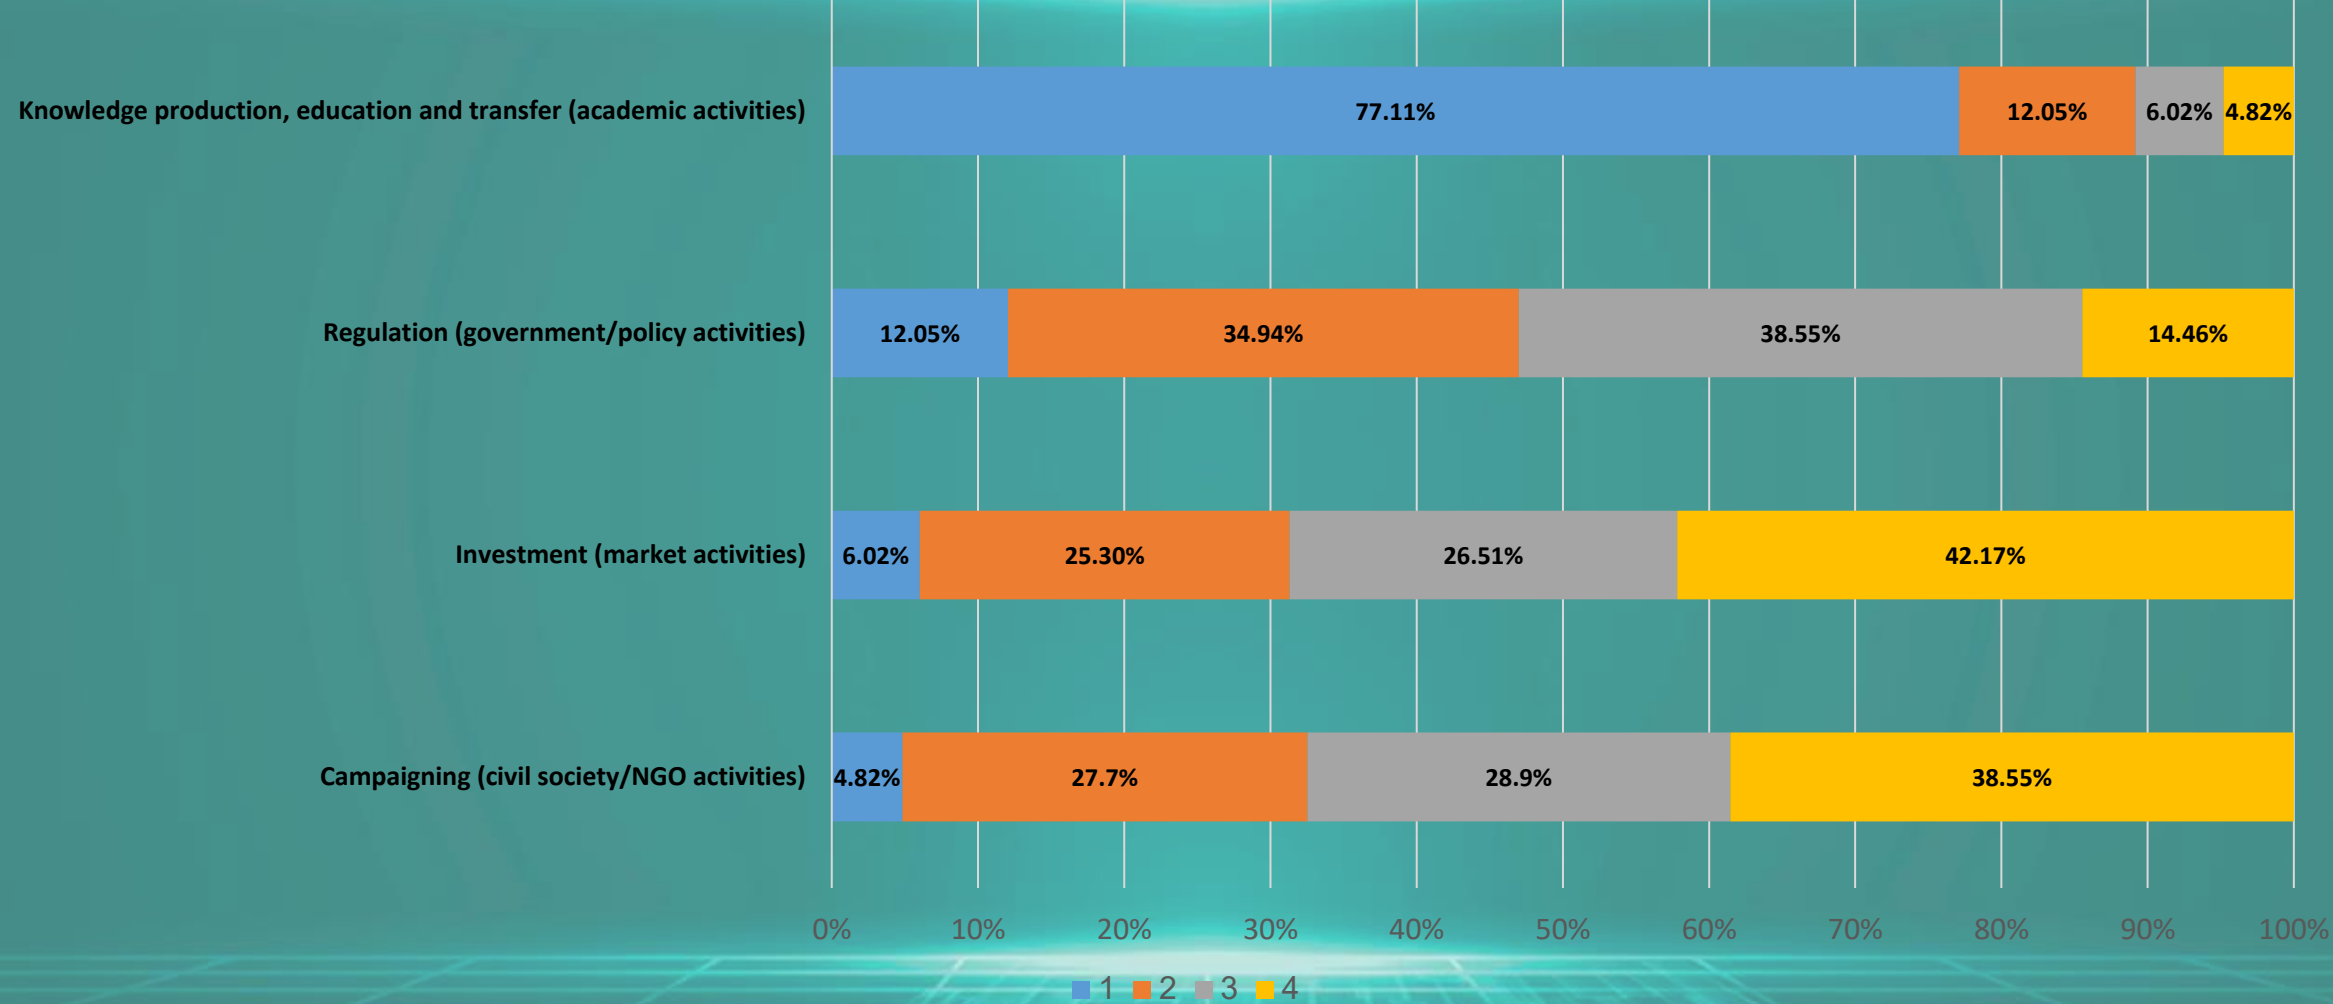

Q 4: What are the main contributions of academia with regard to sustainability? Academia contributes towards... N=83

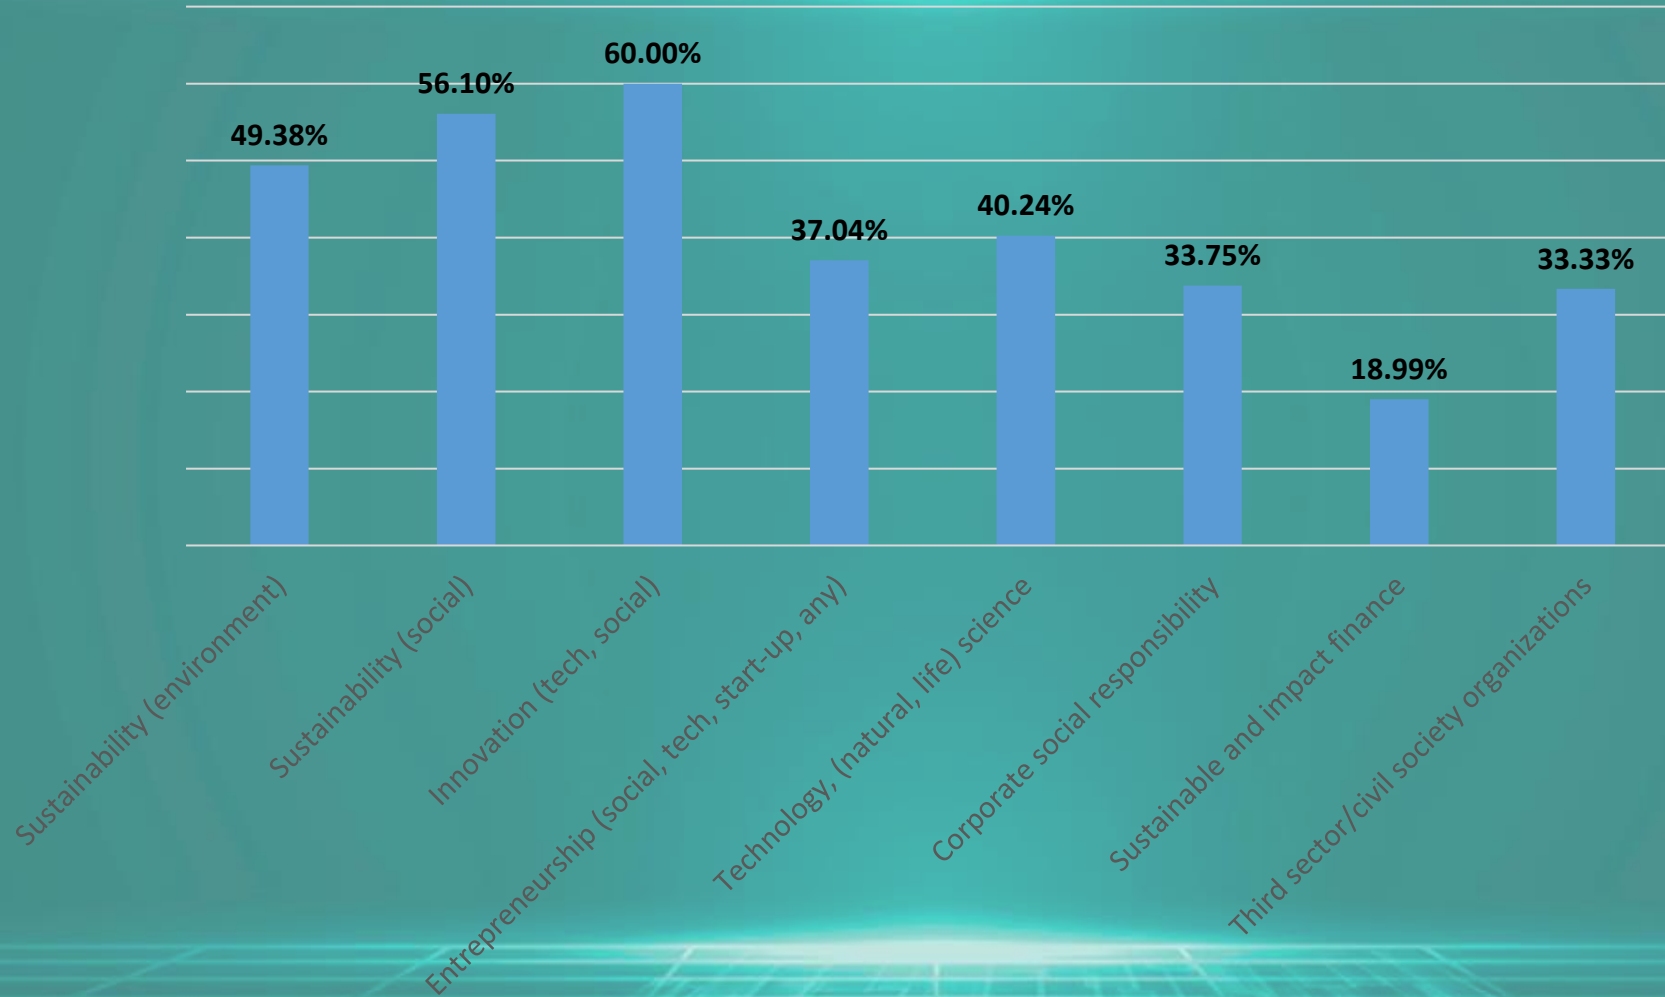

Q 5: How is academia performing on these tasks? N=83

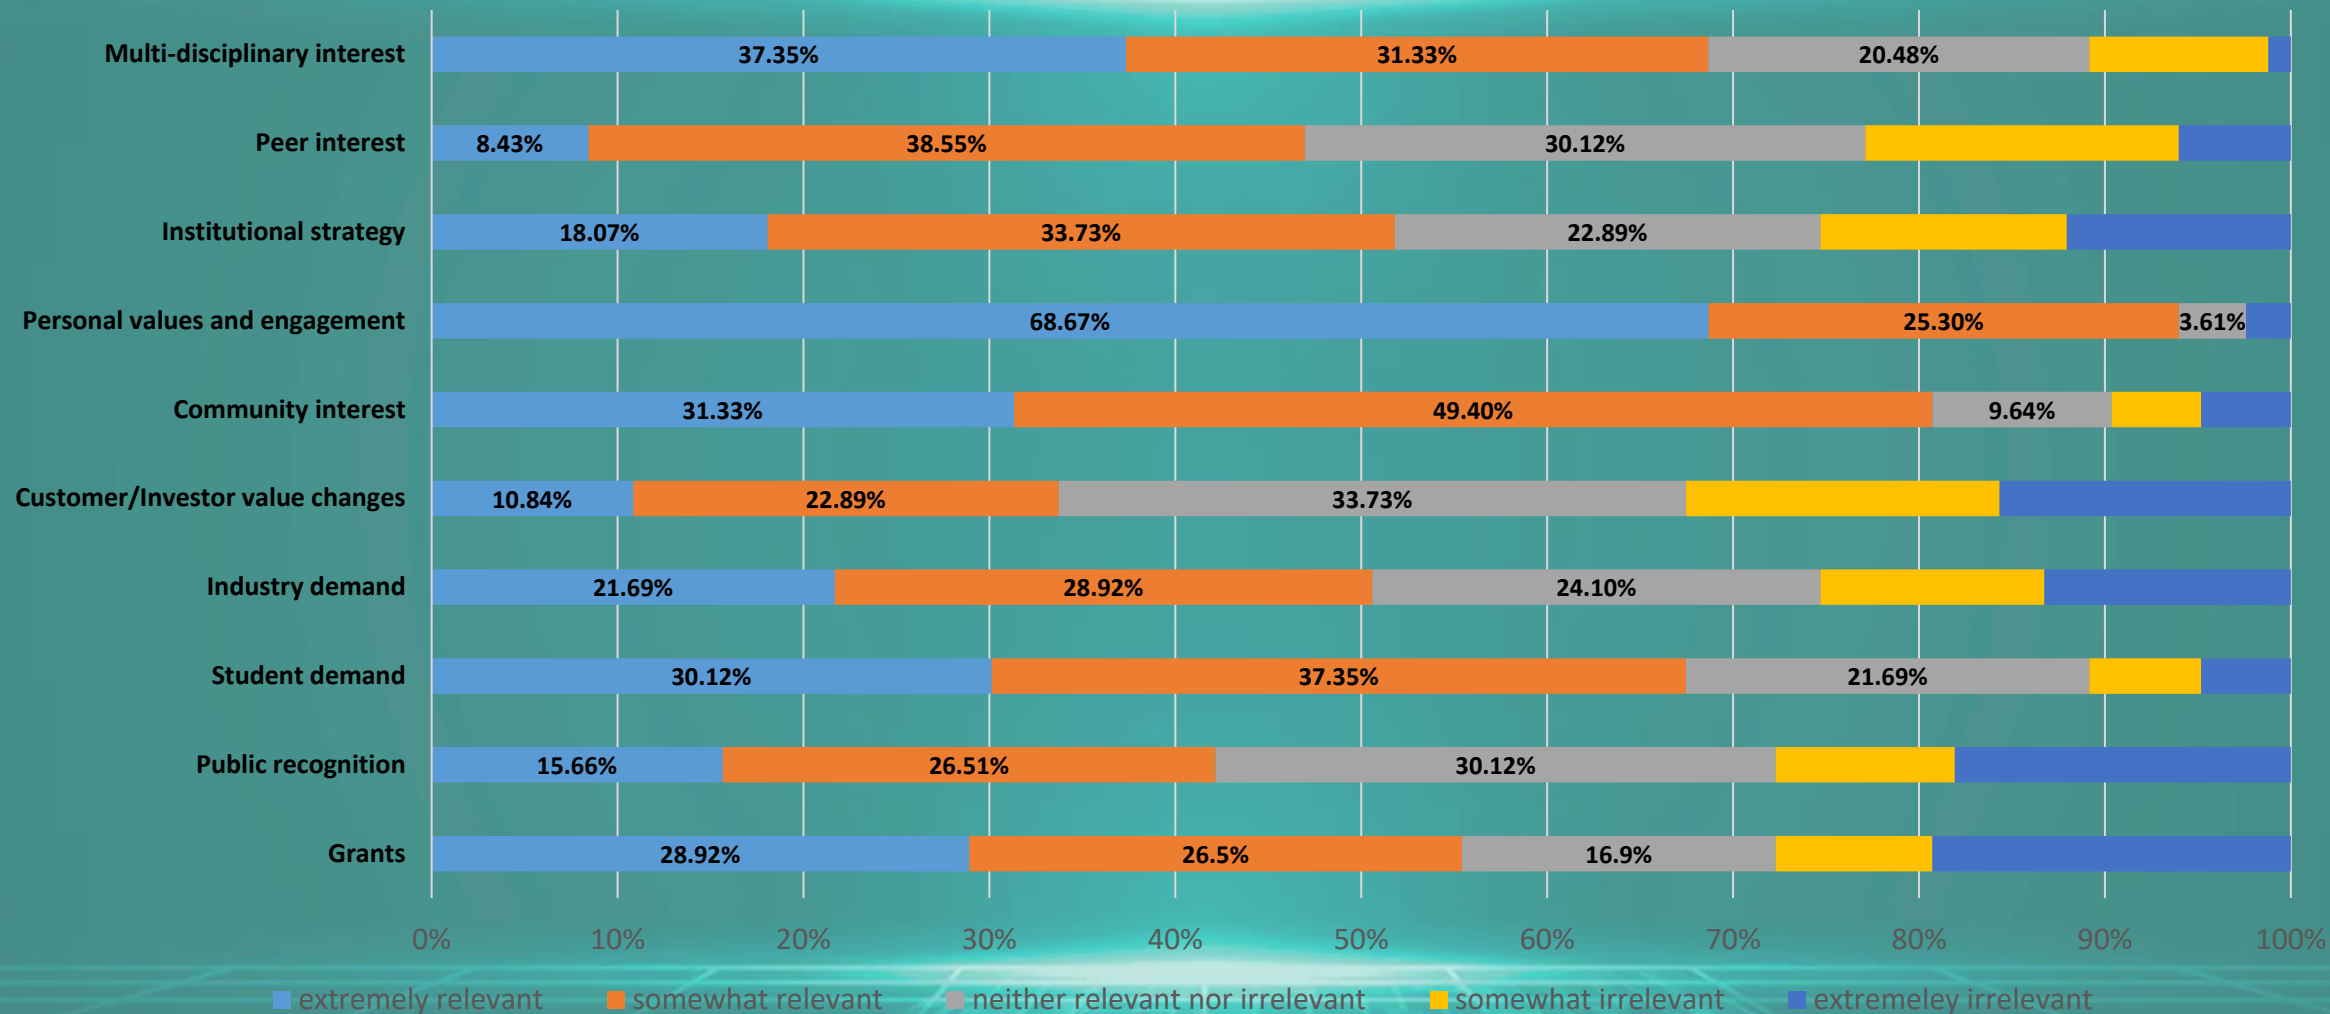

Q 8: Through which approach would you as an academic expect the biggest contribution towards solving these problems?
 (rank all four in order of your priority) N=83

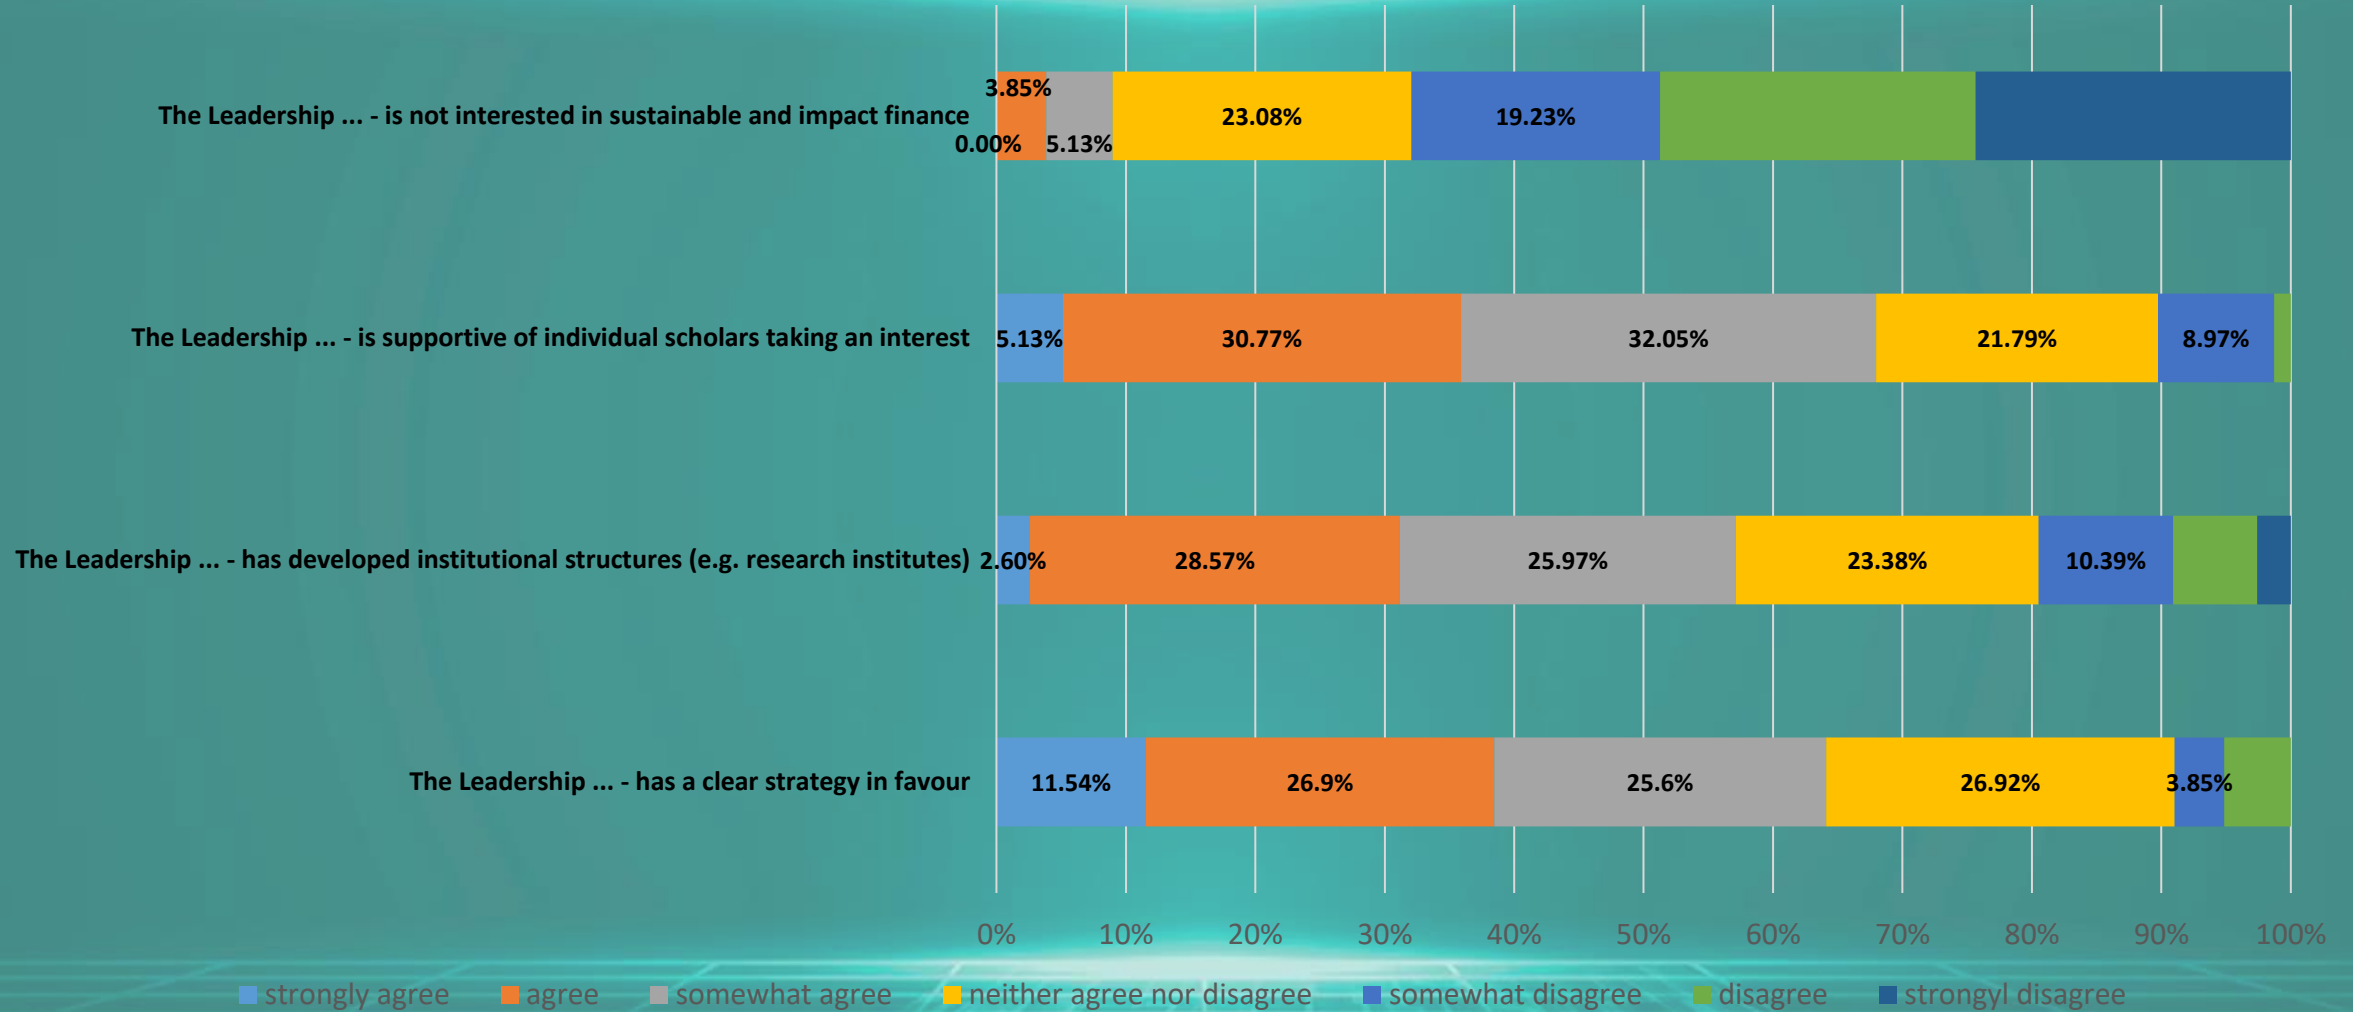

Q 10: Are you working on sustainability or impact issues (be it in market, political governance, public policy or civil society contexts) with a focus on any of the following topics? N=83

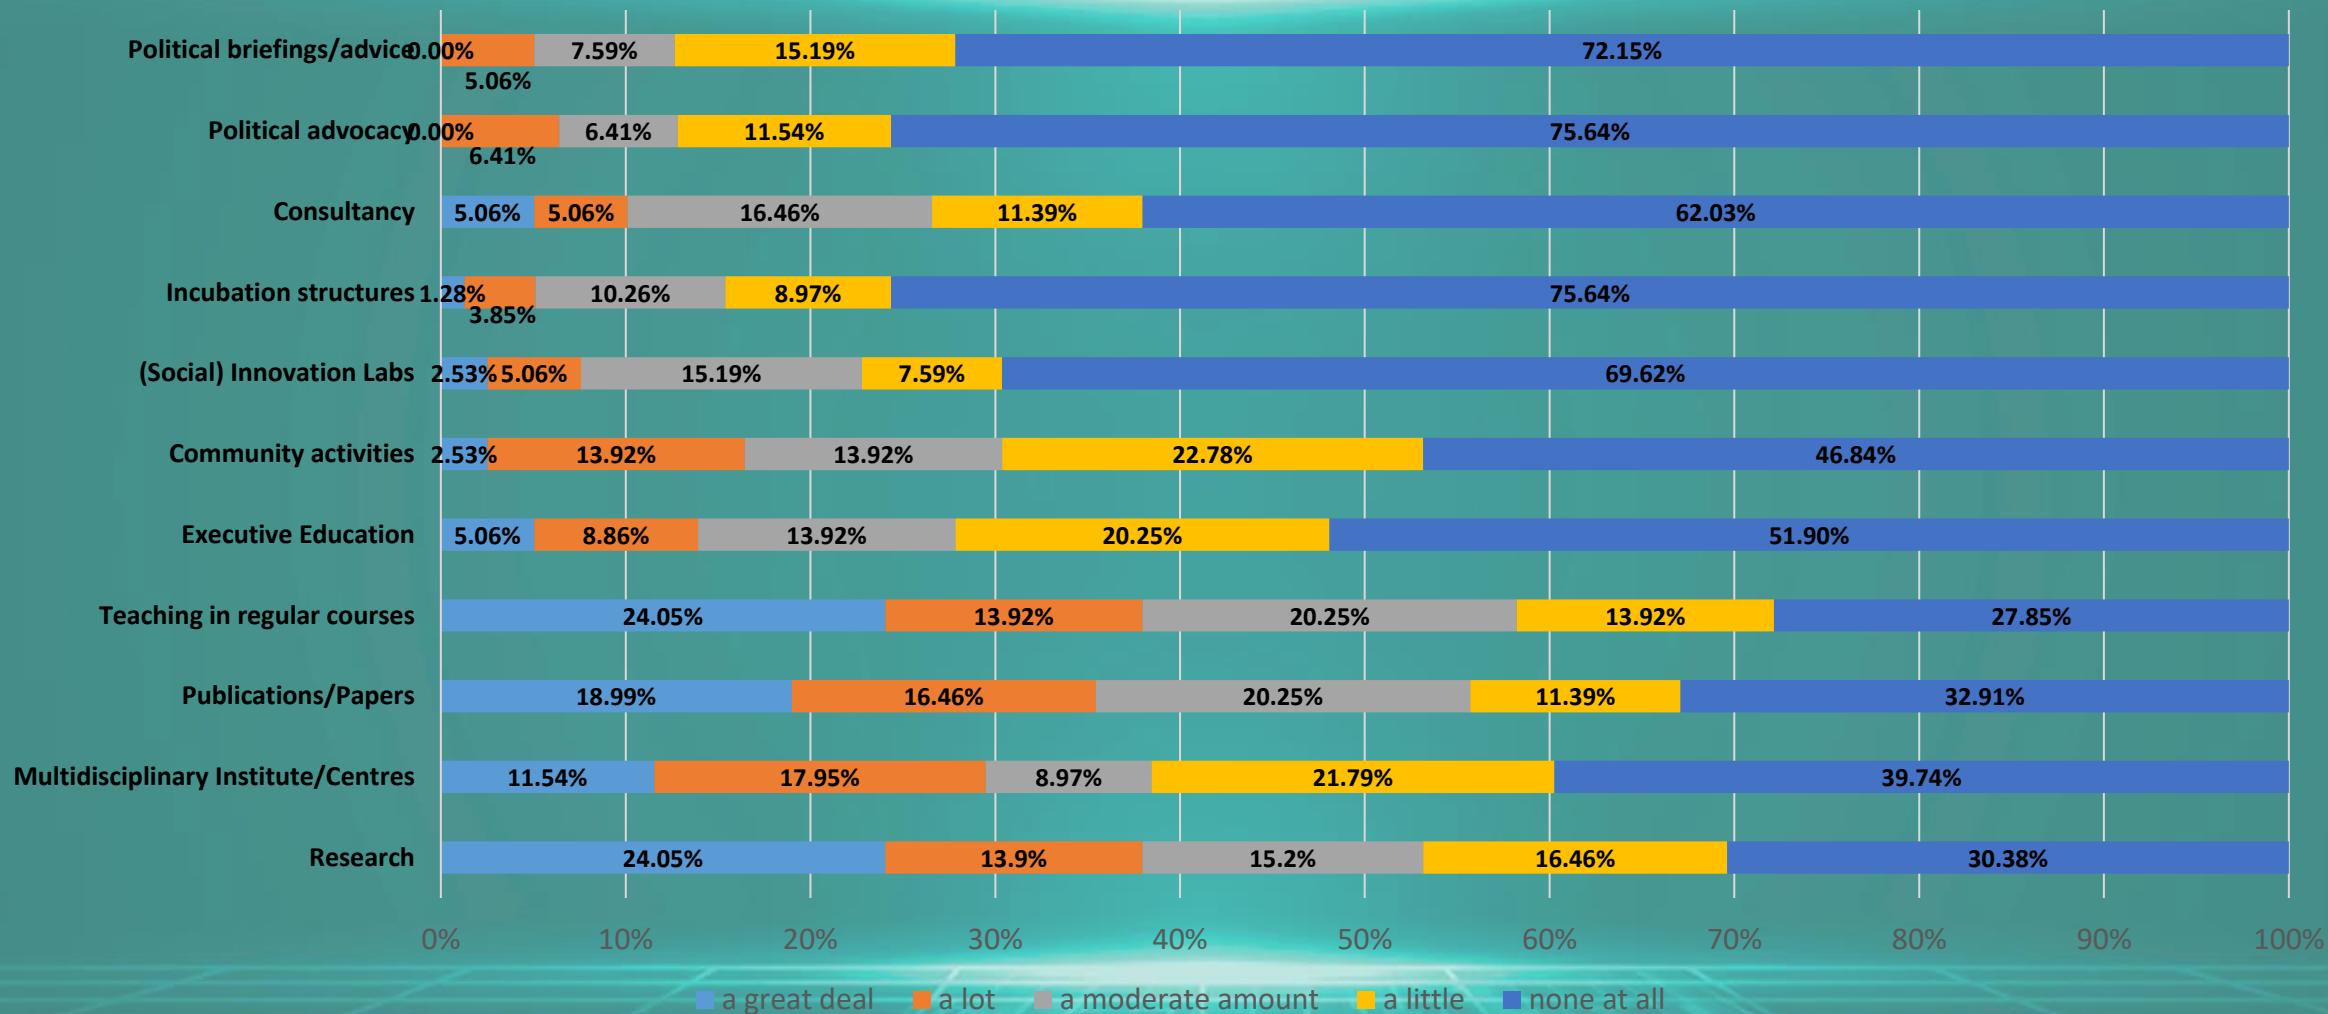

Q 12: Which incentives have encouraged you to work on these societal challenges? N=83

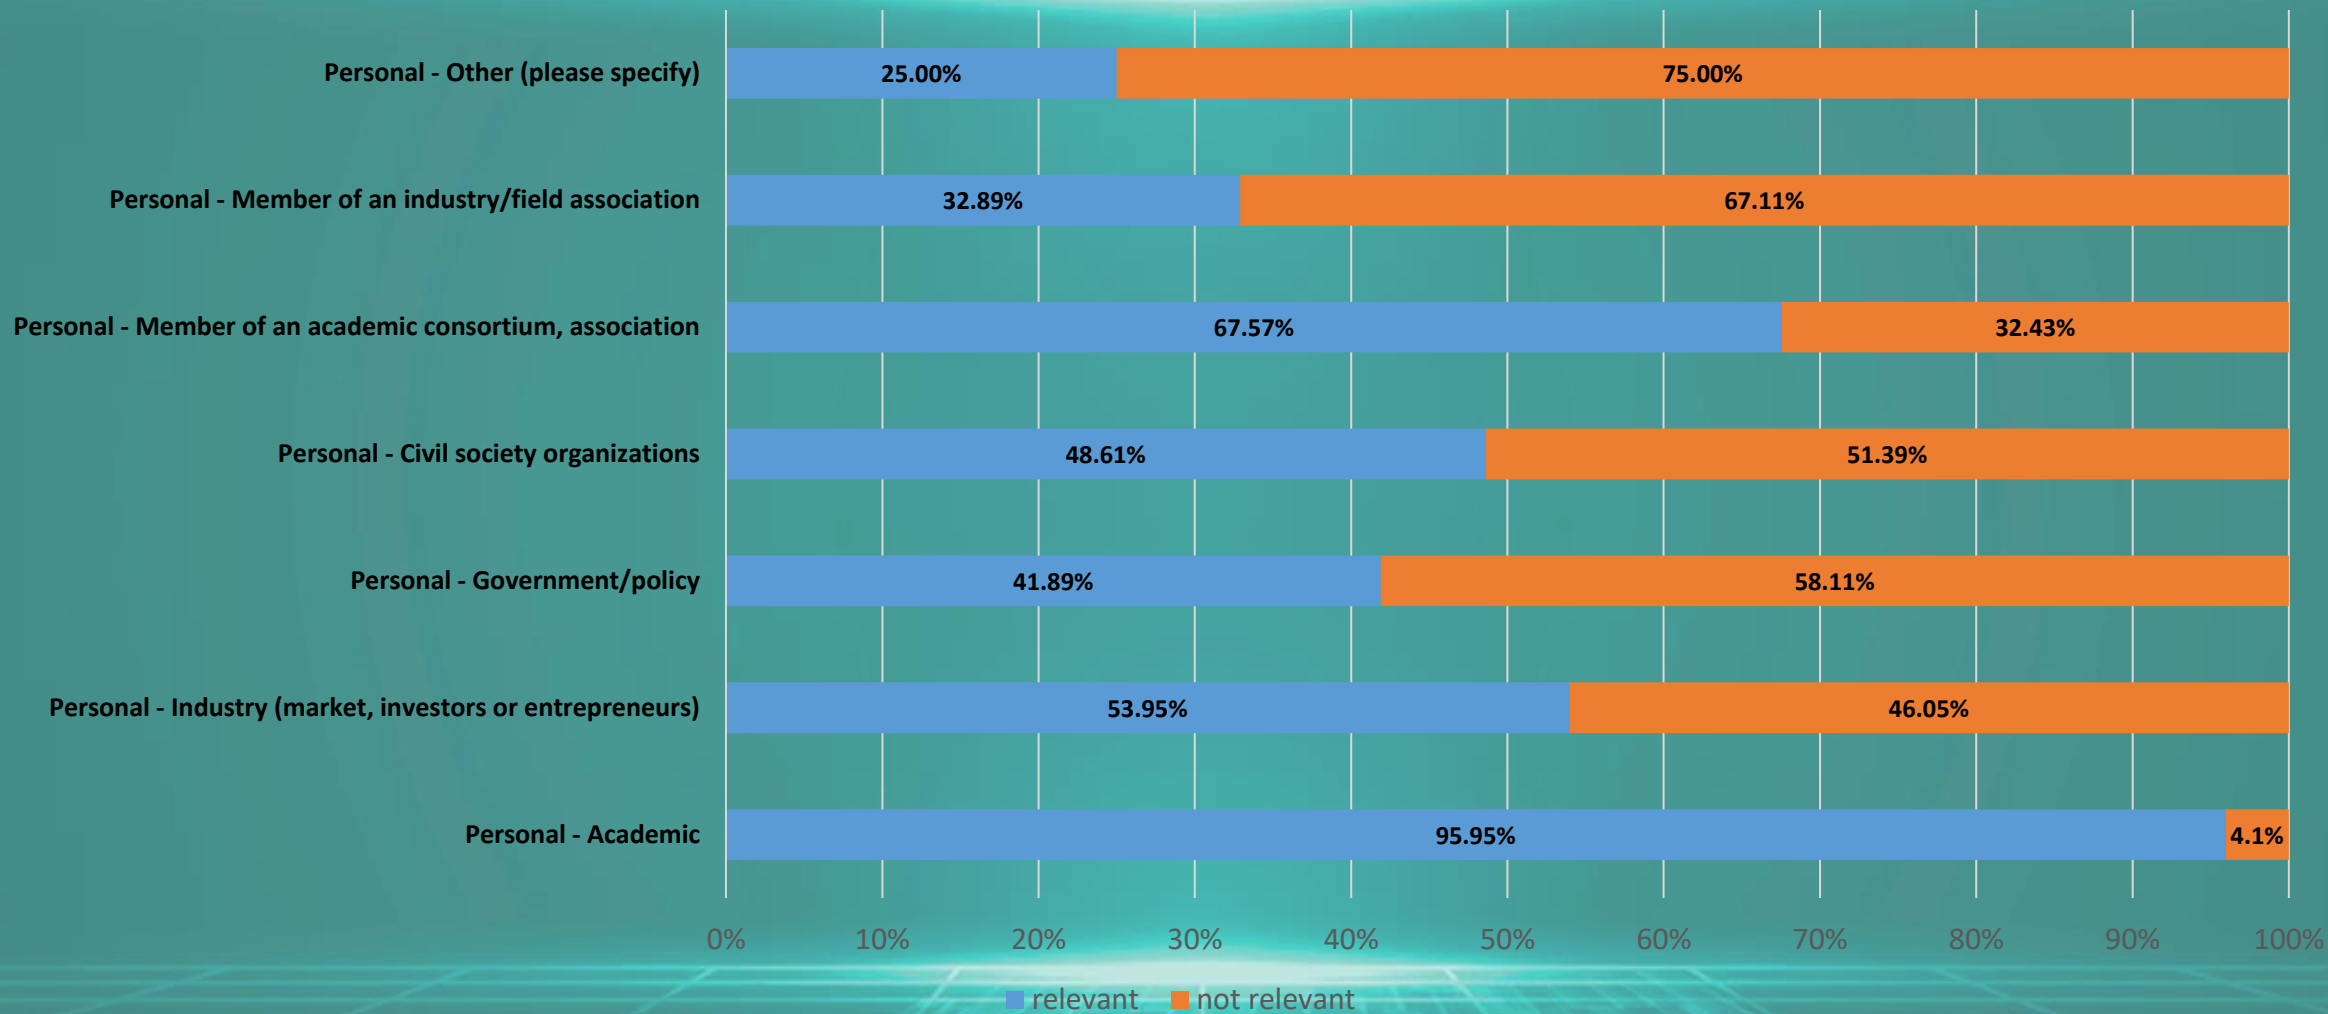

Q 14: What is the strategic position of the leadership/management of your institution regarding sustainable and impact finance? N=83

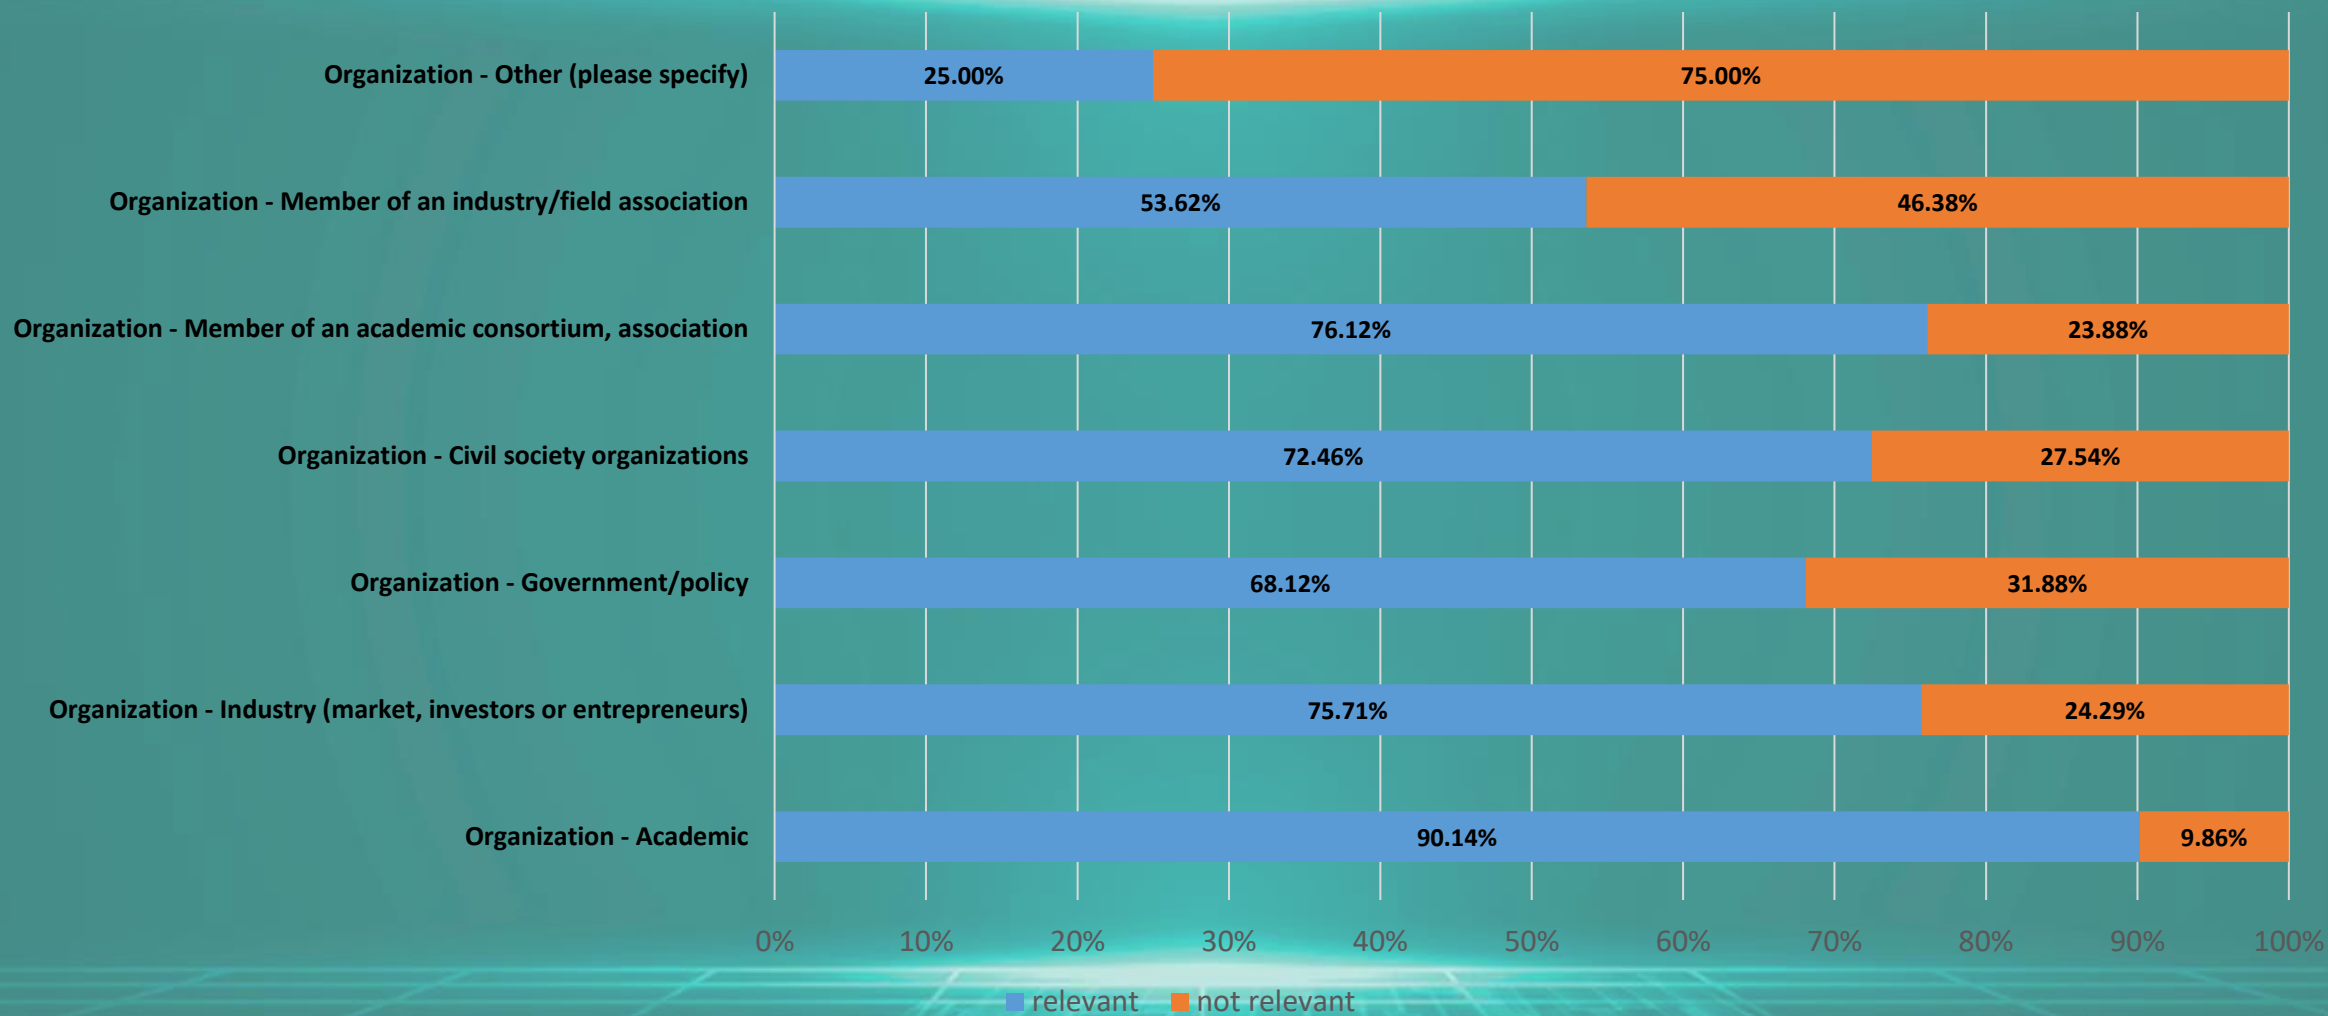

Q 18_1: With regard to sustainable and impact finance in which of the following activities are you currently involved? N=83

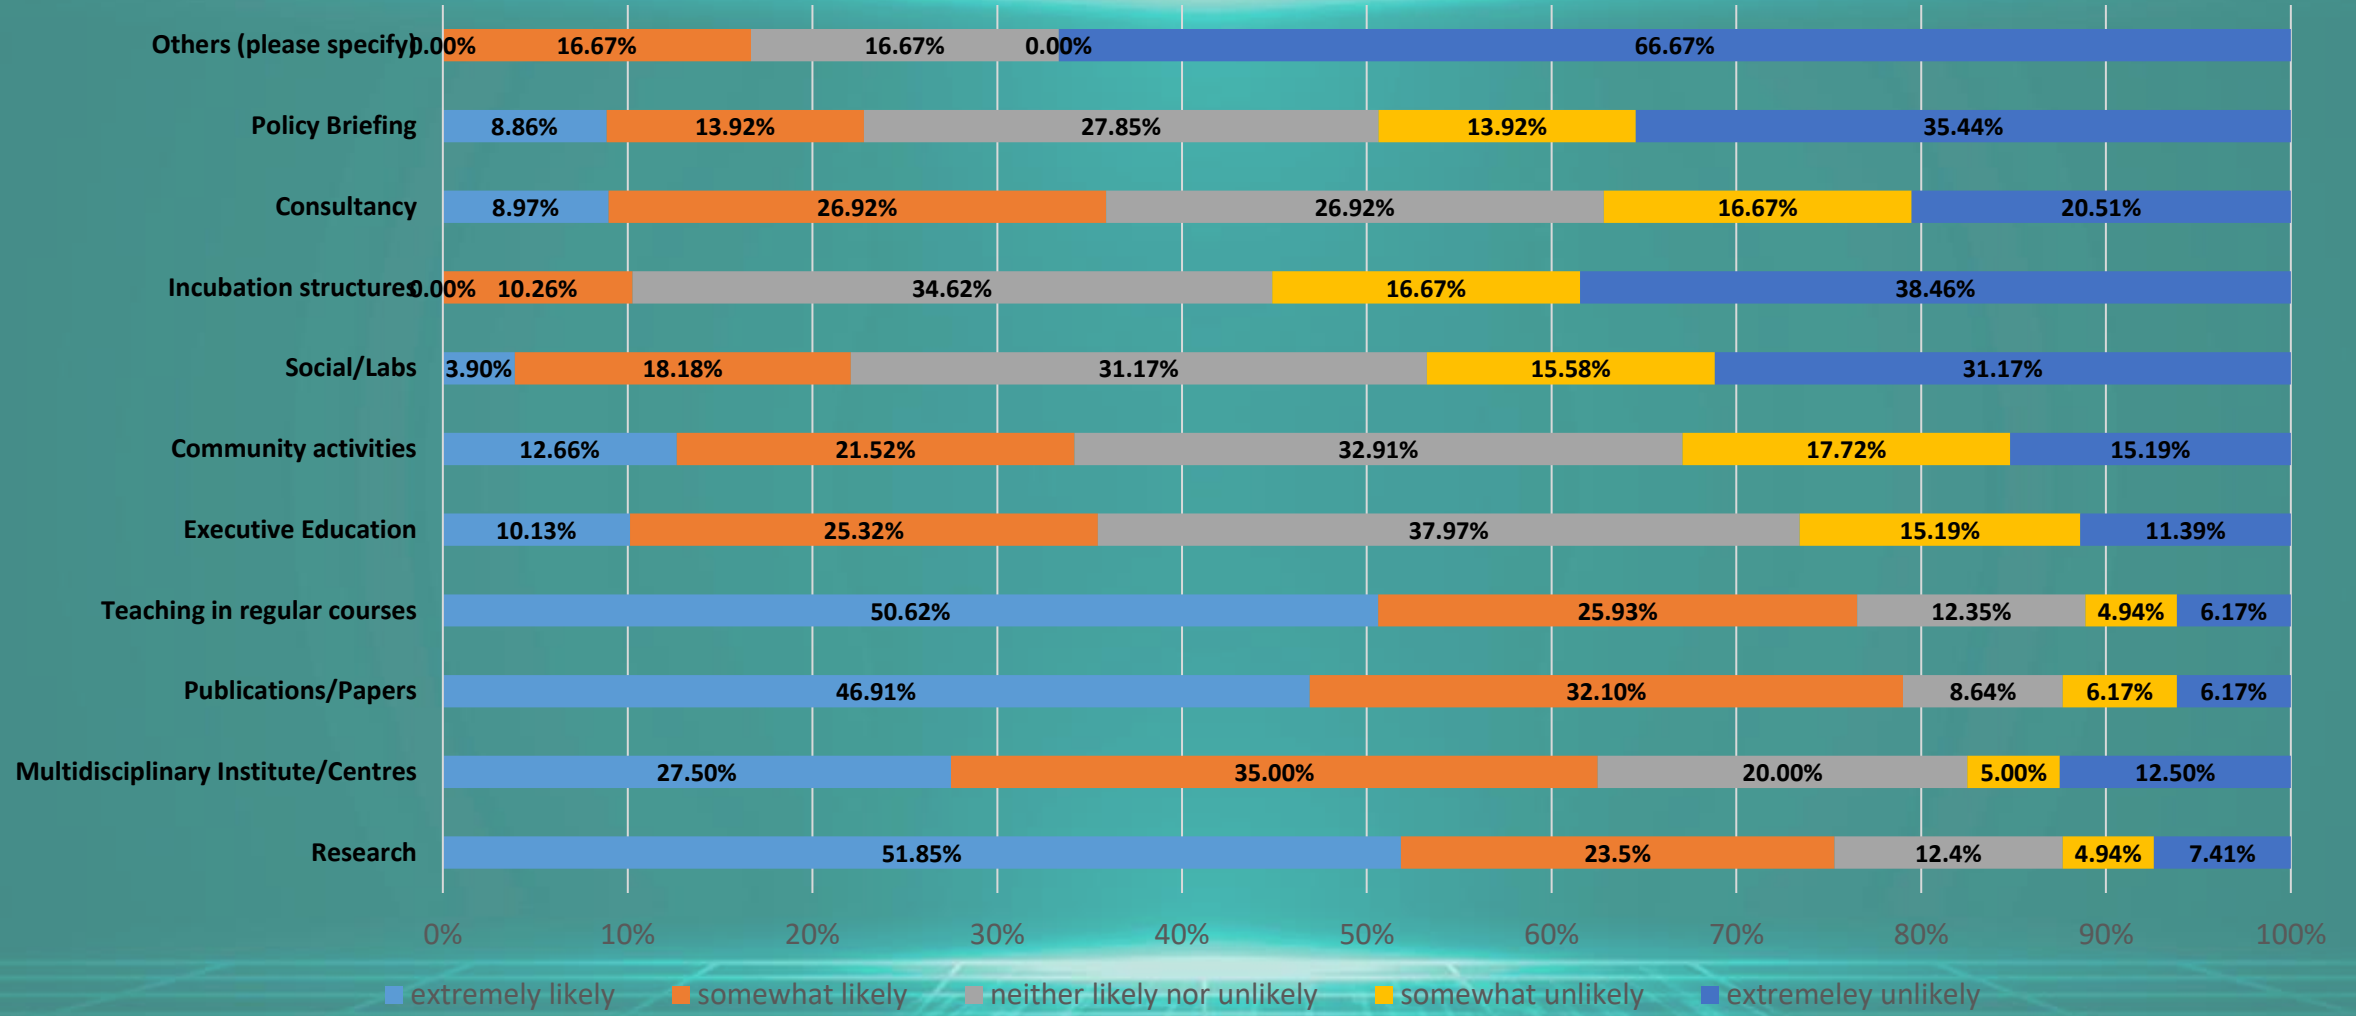

Q 18_2: Which partnerships with other stakeholders do you personally/does your organization already have? N=83

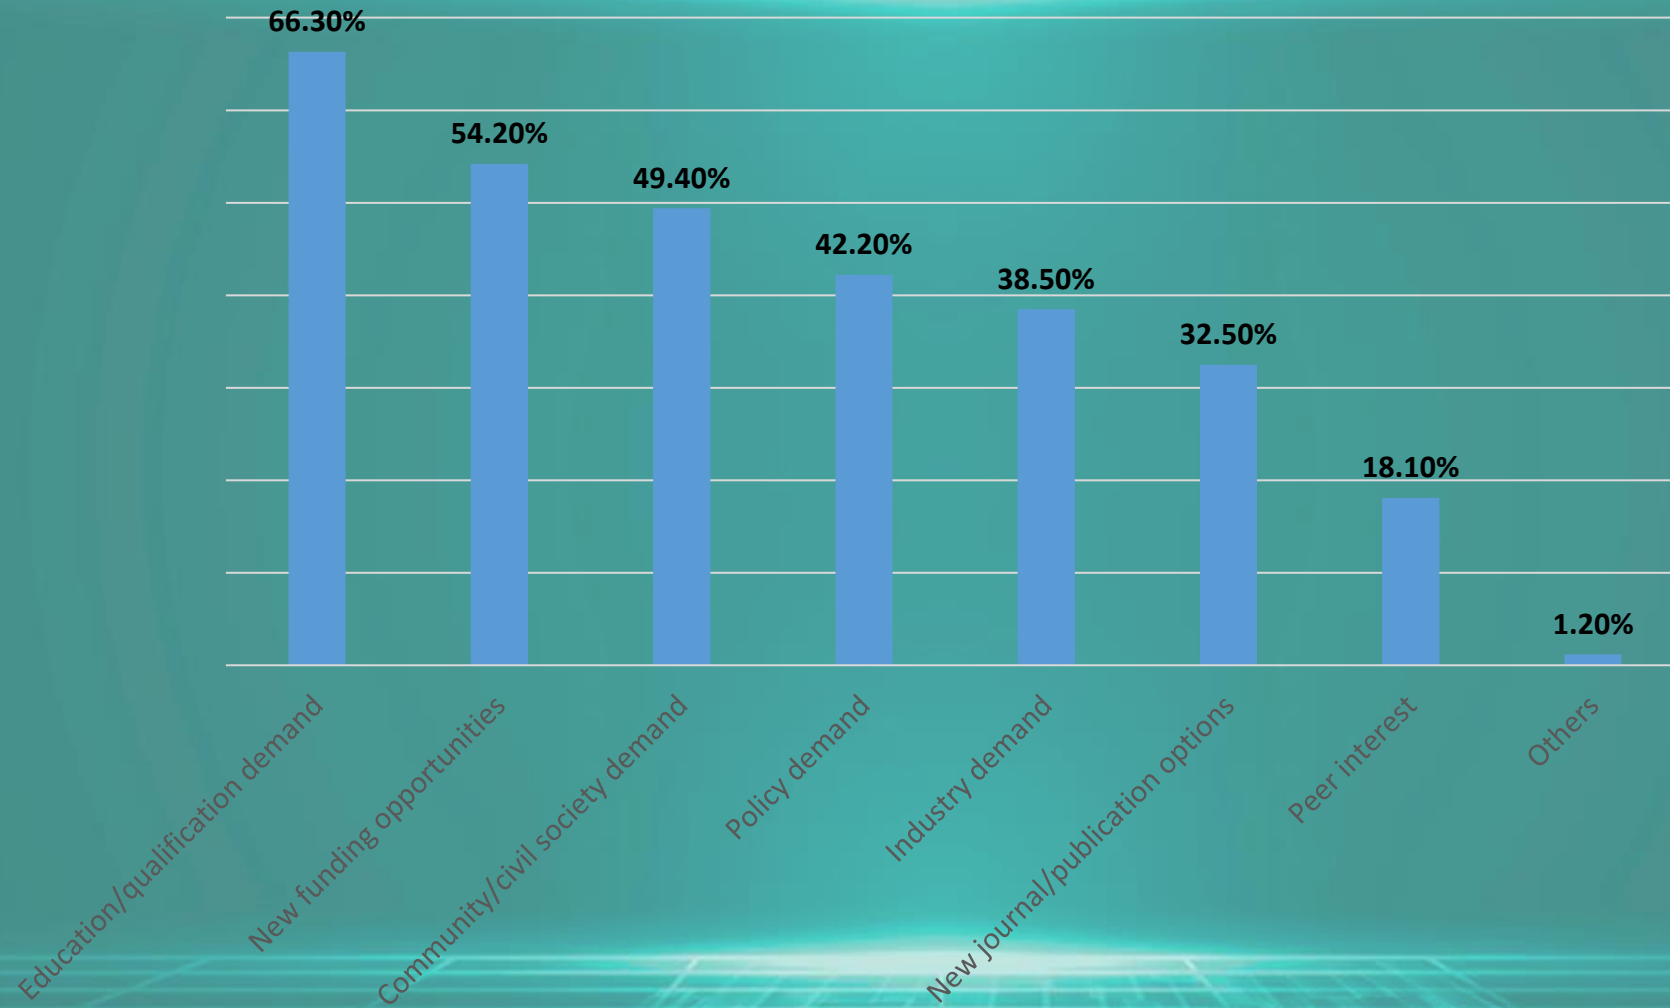

Q 18_3: Which partnerships with other stakeholders do you personally/does your organization already have? N=83

Q 21: In which of the following activities will you be getting more involved in the future? N=83

Q 24: What would strongly encourage academic involvement in sustainable and impact finance issues in general? N=83

Q 27: What will you do to develop additional/new partnerships in the next three years with regard to sustainable and impact finance? N=83

